HIGHLIGHTS

Want to get your torah on?

The High Holydays are late this year, with Rosh Hashanah starting on Sunday, September 29 and Yom Kippur on Tuesday, October 8. This gives you plenty of time to learn a torah portion for the holidays. No experience necessary. Everyone who tries it gets hooked!

Recordings of the portions are available on the Members page of the Betenu website if you want to preview the task.

If you are interested, contact the office or Sara Murphy.

Havdallah ahead

No need to miss out on services this summer. We have two services with Rav Sam and the first one is Havdallah on Saturday, July 13. Since Havdallah is a short service, we will begin with a bring-your-own picnic-style dinner and schmoozing time starting at 4:30 pm. Desserts will be provided.
